

I do not want the current petition by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law. I consider unwanted telephone calls a form of harrasment and wish Indiana's law was stronger and included the prevention of all calls solliciting donations. I will strongly consider removing my telephone to prevent these unwanted calls if Indiana's law is weakened.